Providence on Wednesday: Destination Station!

Join us for faith, food, fellowship and fun at Providence UMC on Wednesday nights, January 11 through May 23, 2012. Pack up the kids, yourself and invite a friend – really, just come as you are and make church your mid-week spiritual nourishment destination.

Get your 'passport' (when you check in for dinner) and bring it each week to be stamped as we travel on a faith journey together. We'll award prizes when we arrive in May at our closing celebration for winter/spring.

Each Wednesday enjoy a delicious meal featuring a different locale ... perhaps a taste of Italy, Mexico, Americana and more. Check the website, the 'Voice' newsletter, and the POW information board for delicious weekly menus.

Dinner is served from 5:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m. Cost is $7 for adults & $4 for children 10 & under. (Max cost per family is $25.) Please make reservations by 12:00 noon on Monday the week of POW. You can sign up now at www.providenceumc.org.

At 6:30 p.m., enjoy a 'Journey through the Bible' study with Rev. John Fitzgerald in the Chapel. It's a conversational, question and answer time as we explore the Bible together. No preparation necessary; come as you are!
